WEEK 3

THE MOST UNIQUE POWER RATINGS IN THE COUNTRY

These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rating, as we take into account all of the following: Strength of Opponents Individual Units (Rushing Offense and Defense, Passing Offense, & Defense, Scoring Offense and Defense, Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edge, and Successful Unbalanced Attacks). Here is how each is reflected:

Strength of Opponent: Our ratings do not just take the opposing team's overall power rating into account. For example, last year, Florida Atlantic's defense vs the rush was rated at 119. They faced Alabama and allowed "just" 256 yds rushing and dropped 5 spots in the national overall defensive ratings. However, Power Plays took into account the potent Crimson Tide run attack and had forecasted the Owls yielding 289 yds. Due to the fact they did better than the forecast, Power Plays raised their rating to 112 even though they slipped in the national (straight yardage) rankings. Another example last season was Wisconsin vs UTEP. Wisconsin held UTEP to just 77 yards rushing and stayed the same in the overall defense in the national statistics. However, our ratings had them rated at 15 and moved them down, as they should have yielded just 50 yards to a weak UTEP rush attack. Next time an announcer on TV tells you that a certain team is #3 in the country vs the run you better check Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings and see how good a rush defense they really have! The top twenty ratings in Power Ratings for each offensive and defensive category will be listed in each week's issue of Power Plays.

Garbage yards: These are yards that a team gains or allows in the final minutes of a game when it has been decided. For example, Team A is ahead 63-0 and allows 93 yards passing for a TD vs its fourth string defense. These yards are counted into national ratings, but not in Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings!

Weather: If a game is played in miserable weather conditions and is low scoring, the straight statistics credit the defense with outstanding performances. Our Power Ratings reflect the conditions and do not give excess credit to the defenses.

Injuries: When Missouri played Vanderbilt last year, Tigers QB James Franklin was injured early in the game. His backup, who had seen very little action (rFr), was not prepared and hit on 30%, 9-30 passes. The offensive coordinator simplified the offense. In the national statistics Vanderbilt's overall defense MOVED UP 8 NOTCHES. In Phil's Power Ratings they went from #11 dropping out of the Top 15, as the poor performance WAS NOT reflective of an outstanding performance by the defense.

Home Field Edges: The weekly projection of yards and points is weighted with the home field factored in.

Successful Unbalanced Attacks: Last season, Tulsa was held to 155 yards passing vs Houston. This dropped Tulsa in the national passing offense ratings & RAISED the Cougars in the pass defense ratings. In our ratings the two units remained rated around the same. Why? Tulsa rushed for 350 yards & DID NOT HAVE TO RELY ON THE PASS & when they did they hit 18 of 32. While Houston's pass defense looked good in the national ratings, only Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings reflected the TRUTH!

There you have it. More than just numbers, THESE RATINGS REFLECT the true strength of each unit and allow them to have the most accurate forecast of yards gained and points allowed in the country! No other rating system takes into account all the previous factors. Next time you hear that a team is rated third in the country in pass defense, just remember, yards are not everything and Northcoast Sports' Power Plays will show you how strong the team really is.

NORTHCOAST SPORTS PLUS OR MINUS POWER RATINGS

The Power Ratings listed below are not based on the Power Plays, they are based on last year's final computer power rating numbers with the pluses and minuses from the off season changes factored in. They are then adjusted during the course of the season based on the final score of the games that are played on a weekly basis. The Power Ratings listed below can be used for you as a base power ratings to forecast up coming lines and strength of opponents, etc. Once again, they are not based on Power Plays and they differ from what we have shown in recent years, which has been our actual computer Power Ratings. These are Northcoast Sports Plus or Minus Power Ratings.

2013 COLLEGE POWER PLAYS RANKINGS

Listed below are Northcoast Sports' Power Play Rankings. These Power Play Rankings are unique. Our rankings are unlike any computer ranking, as we take into account all the following: Strength of Opponents, Individual Units (Rushing Offense, Rushing Defense, Passing Offense, and Passing Defense) Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edges, and successful Unbalanced Attacks. Regular rankings based solely on numbers DO NOT take into account these factors.

2013 TOUGHEST OPPONENT UNIT'S FACED

WHAT ARE THE TOUGHEST OPPONENT RANKINGS?

These rankings go far beyond the NCAA's straight statistical ranking of each team. For example last year Notre Dame ranked #89

The Power Plays Newsletter consists of forecasts that are made by a special rating system. You will see in the write-ups that we agree with the majority of the PP forecasts. However, there are times when we will disagree. We want to make it clear that this is the PP Newsletter and these forecasts are based purely on the power ratings. If the PP's rating is strong enough to be a 4★ Play, yet we are on the other side of the game, we will clearly state that we like the other side of the game. With all that said here are this week's PP Selections.

While PP projects the Knights to take home an easy 23 pt home victory there are a few things that EM has in their favor. First, RU dropped its last meeting a ssn ago vs a MAC opp (Kent St) and second, the Knights have a huge HG vs Ark on deck. We agree with PP and take the pts here.

Just a quick note for our Power Plays Subscribers. Obviously this newsletter is based upon statistical numbers and rankings that are used to develop the projections you see here. As with all types statistical information the more numbers that one inputs ordinarily the stronger the accuracy of the results. Therefore, one would expect the projections to be more reliable after a number of weeks worth of stats are input. The numbers here are based upon how they finished last season with adjustments made due to personnel changes. Preseason statistics are not included in any of the projections as we do not feel they would accurately adjust the numbers.

Both teams are off MNF matchups with rookie coaches and PP obviously doesn't have that information available. PHI has a welcome home game vs Andy Reid on Thursday to look forward to but without MNF this is clearly a No Play.

BALTIMORE	111	333	27	0	#1

Both teams are off awful wk 1 games as BAL was hammered by DEN losing their #2 WR (Jacoby Jones) and missing the Reed/Lewis tandem on defense. CLE inexplicably went away from RB Richardson and put too much on Weeden (53 att's 49% 1-3 ratio) albeit vs a good MIA defense. PP leans with the Ravens to bounce back with extra rest here and we agree as well.

TEN is off an upset win vs PIT but Locker didn't stand out with 125 yds (55%) as TEN's defense simply grinded it out vs an out of sync OL that lost its center. This is a tough spot for MIA on the road again after a wk 1 road win with a marquee game vs ATL on deck. IND didn't live up to its DD fav spot vs OAK last week but they are 8-1 SU/6-3 ATS at home w/Luck. CAR deserves a ton of credit for going toe to toe w/SEA who is clearly expected to be a playoff team holding them to 2 FG's on their 1st 7 drives. CAR also was in position to win the game getting down to the SEA 8 before turning the ball over w/5:34 left. BUF lost a heartbreaker to NE and now faces an NFC team they don't know w/a road game vs NYJ on deck. ATL went to the wire vs a NO team thrilled to get HC Payton back on the sidelines. 11-3-1 ATS at home after a SU loss, ATL has a big edge w/experienced skill players here with a rowdy home crowd as RB Jackson takes on his former team. STL struggled vs an ARZ unit w/a new HC but improved QB situation and now have to travel with another marquee game vs DAL on deck. PP leans with the home team but doesn't back it up w/just +77 yds so No Play on the side but the Total is worth a look.

GB is off another loss to SF where they lost their composure (again) and were taken apart for almost 500 yds. Rodgers can't be happy with 3 punts/2 TO's on 5 of GB's 1st 6 drives offensively. This is a very poor spot for WAS off a MNF home opener vs a Div rival and having to travel on a short week w/DET on deck. While the situation says GB, the reality is that PP doesn't have WAS's MNF info available and without seeing how sharp Griffin is, this is a No Play.

CHI is 5-0 SU/ATS hosting MIN w/a 36-21 avg score despite Peterson rushing for 263 yds (5.3) LY. Trestman impressed w/shrewd halftime adjustments vs a good CIN defense while MIN sputtered when DET took the game out of Peterson's hands and forced Ponder to make plays. TAMPA BAY	157	313	24	0	#28

NO was clearly re-energized with the return of Payton and carries that momentum forward vs a TB team that is just 4-15 ATS as a HD. The Bucs are off a crushing loss where they had the game in hand despite a shaky effort from Freeman giving up the game winning FG thanks to a late hit. Perhaps the biggest concern is that with their upgraded defense they gave up over 300 yds to an offense led by a rookie QB and now face a New Orleans team that earned 35 and 41 pts without Payton. Power Plays has this at the line though so No Play.

Don't overreact as the projection is more a result of ARZ's homefield edge than LW's results. DET's offense showed how loud they can roar with some variety with Bush having 191 total yds. ARZ played STL tough thanks to Palmer but saw it slip away with Palmer taking a sack/fumble in the 4Q to set up a FG to tie. PP calls for the home team here but we think DET is the better team with momentum.

OAKLAND	128	241	23	-2	#26

Both teams are paying for past roster mistakes in 2013 with both in the hunt for the top pick in the 2014 Draft. JAX went 3 & out on 7 of its first 11 drives with just 4 FD's and 34 yds until their 13th drive. OAK made the most out of Pryor's mobility last week to mask their OL issues but is just 5-15 ATS as a HF. Gabbert injured his right hand last week (15 stitches) and will likely go to Henne but with this being at the line its a No Play.

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
DENVER	52	384	32	0	#2
NY GIANTS	71	389	28	-5	#13

Peyton is 2-0 SU/ATS in the Manning Bowl with extra rest and this will be the 14th game he's played in a NYJ/NYG stadium. The Giants tallied 478 yds vs DAL but have only themselves to blame for 6 TO's. The Giants are 4-0 SU/ATS at home off a loss and Coughlin will be livid after LW's effort. PP has this right at the line for the side making it a No Play for now.

NO PLAY: BRONCOS 32 GIANTS 28

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
SAN FRANCISCO	114	201	18	+2	#14
SEATTLE	98	266	21	+1	#12

It's not a surprise that PP has this right at the line (making it a No Play) with just 49 yds difference with a pair of similar mindsets backed by solid rosters. SEA is 14-3-1 ATS at home but SF clearly has its swagger after beating GB last week The best of the NFC West is on display here and you can get this Sunday Marquee after 11 am ET.

NO PLAY: SEAHAWKS 21 49ERS 18MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 16th

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
PITTSBURGH	12	204	13	-2	#23
CINCINNATI	56	236	22	-2	#17

Both teams are off big losses as CIN blew a 21-10 lead halfway thru the 3Q LW and PIT is off a brutal home loss where they lost 2 starters (Pouncey, Foote) and a key backup (RB Stephens-Howling) for what is expected to be the year. PIT is 11-1 ATS at CIN as their fans travel incredibly well here. Does CIN stand up to the injury depleted Steelers or do they continue to get bullied in their own house?

NO PLAY: BENGALS 22 STEELERS 13
